1. On 25 November 1950, it was learned that a mimeographed propaganda letter had been issued to all police of the VP school in Dessau-Kochstedt in an effort to recruit volunteers. The police were told to make use of the letter without giving it away. It indicated that applicants had to be between 18 and 22 years of age and that they were required to have completed their apprenticeship in some trade. Applications had to indicate all personal data of both the applicant and his father, including details concerning party membership, place and duration of P.I. internment, trade, reason for application, and in Saxony-Anhalt applications were to be submitted to the VP school in Kochstedt; in Thuringia, to the 1st VP Bereitschaft in Erfurt; in Mecklenburg, to the VP school in Rostock; in Saxony to the 5th VP Bereitschaft in Frankenberg and the 7th VP Bereitschaft in Loebau; and in Brandenburg, to the 9th VP Bereitschaft in Brandenburg-Hohensuicken. It was rumored that in event the number of volunteers was insufficient, certain classes, such as 1930 through 1932, would be drafted. *
2. In late November, the VP school in Kochstedt had to furnish a quota of 80 Hauptwachmeister for criminal police training in Magdeburg. Police with more than one year of service were eligible for a motor school at an unknown location. **
3. It was planned to transfer instructors from Kochstedt to a radio Bereitschaft stationed in the Heide Kaserne, Halle. ***
